

Cornish Wines from the Camel Valley

The Lindo family have been growing grapes and turning them into wine for twenty years. And the award-winning wine they make is distinctive and elegant. Just as the delicate flavour of English strawberries is enhanced by a long cool growing season, the same goes for grapes.

Slower growth in a cooler climate means all the delicate fruit aromas and subtle flavours are retained; as a result the wines taste uniquely clean, light and fresh.

- |   |                                 |   |
|---|---------------------------------|---|
| 1 | Cornwall                 | Atlantic Dry 2007 £23.95 Where as they use the grapes first pressings for the sparkling wins. The Atlantic dry is made from the second pressing. This explains its fuller flavour and reduced acidity. Very refreshing, the essence of Englishness–BBC good food Bottle £23.95 250ml glass £7.85 175ml glass £5.85 |
| 2 | Cornwall                 | Bacchus, 2007 £23.95 Crisp, clean and refreshing the Baccus typifies the emerging classic style of English white wine. This wine matches well with seafood, in particular delicate fish and shellfish Stunning– Independent on Sunday Bottle £23.95 250ml glass £7.85 175ml glass £5.85                            |
| 5 | Cornwall                 | Camel Valley Rose 2007 £24.95 The rose is beautifully balanced, alive with strawberry and forest fruits. They use the second pressings from the pink Cornwall which guarantees more fruitiness and lower, though still refreshing, levels of acidity Bottle £24.95, 250ml glass £8.50 175ml glass £6.30                          |
| 3 | Cornwall Sparkling Wines | Brut 2007, £35.00 This sparkling is perfect with fish &amp; chips as its bubbles help to break down starch and fat, as a result your fish and chips take on an enhanced, lighter and crisper taste. Delicious Fresh, lovely bright, fruity style, good stuff?– Oz Clarke By the glass £7.75                         |
| 4 | Cornwall Sparkling Wines | Brut 2007 sparkling Pinot Noir Rose £35.00 A delicate pink fizz bursting with raspberry flavours and aromas, and shares Cornwall's fresh &amp; fruity drink ability. I am also lead to believe that this sparkling Pinot Noir rose is almost dangerously easy to drink early morning, evening or night. Glorious, classy–Christies champagne guide           |